Dear Jimmy,

Just a note to tell you we are in Paris. No one speaks English. We had dinner at the hotel last night and the head waiter could help us with the menu so we had a good dinner.

This morning the weather is beautiful.

We are going on a sight seeing tour of Paris at 11 o'clock A.M. this morning. Tonight we are going on a night club tour. This is a huge city and when a person can't speak the language it makes it a little difficult.

We will be home Friday afternoon. See you from London. Love, Mose.
